

MUSIC ON MONDAY!

Workshops

2-4pm Village Hall downstairs

Applique for Beginners

with Mary Lapworth

Learn the wonderful art of how to sew fabric patches on a foundation fabric to produce beautiful designs. Please bring a pair of scissors. Age 14+

2-4pm Scout Hut downstairs

Lace-making with Emma Thompson

Learn the basics of this fascinating and intricate ancient art. Age 15+

2-4pm Scout Hut upstairs

Shake up Shakespeare

with Maria and Maya Whatton
and Sally Muldoon

Love, murder, ghosts, epic battles - it all happens in Shakespeare. Come and discover what fun it can be to act it out. You will need loose clothing, trainers and water. Age 10-14

3pm Arts Cafe, Methodist Hall

Drop-in with Bert Flitcroft

Poet Bert will be happy to chat about your favourite book or poem.

10.30am-12.30pm Methodist Hall

Folk Breakfast

What a great way to start Music On Monday! Join us in the festival tent beside the Methodist Hall for music, bacon butties, the Festival Sausage and tea or coffee. Bring your own instrument and join in or just bring yourself to listen and sing along.

12.30-1.30pm Methodist Hall

Lunchtime Concert (T)

Go Ukulele Crazy Orchestra

They now have years of experience, they have played dozens of concerts and boast a huge repertoire. So come along and enjoy listening to over 30 ukulele players in concert. Sing, wave and, if you have an instrument, join in.

Did Elvis come from Alrewas?

2pm Alrewas Cricket Club

Join Hector Christie and friends for an hour or so of folk, sea shanties, film and stories and find out if Elvis really DID come from Alrewas. Bar. After Hector's performance, several young local bands will be playing until 6pm. Check out the website and posters for details - and for other bands playing in pubs around the village.

