

Lunchtime Concert (T)

12.30-1.30pm Methodist Church

Today's concert organised by Chris Greenhalgh features young local musicians. Expect high standards and an entertaining treat. Consult the website or Box Office for programme details.

Workshops

2-4pm Village Hall downstairs

Sugar Craft with Janette Potter

Make something beautiful to decorate a cake. Please bring an apron. All materials supplied. Age 15+

2-4pm Village Hall downstairs

Enamelling with Pearl Mulholland

Enamel a copper blank with glass and fire it in a kiln to make a pendant. Age 16+

2-3pm All Saints' Church

Paper Aeronautics with Roger Hailwood

Have fun making paper aeroplanes and discover which fly the best. All ages

7-8pm George and Dragon upstairs

Story Circle with Maria Whatton

Is there a great folk tale, ghost story or family anecdote you would like to tell? This is a great opportunity to tell or to listen to a good story with the aid of professional storyteller Maria. You don't have to tell a story until you are ready.

2-3pm Village Hall upstairs

Kids' Poetry with Lorna Lewis

A fast and furious workshop to fire your imagination and stretch your language skills! You will be writing your own poem, playing word games and taking part in lots of fun action rhymes. Age 6-9

2-4pm Scout Hut downstairs

Marzipan Fruits with Sheila Pennell

Be creative with marzipan. Make some beautiful fruit to take home. Age 15+

2-3.30pm Scout Hut downstairs

Sign Singing with Kim Thomas

A fun way to learn a bit of basic sign language while singing along. All ages

3pm Arts Cafe, Methodist Hall

Drop-in for a chat with poet Bert

6-8pm Village Hall upstairs

Patchwork with Paula Brownsett

Make a colourful pin cushion using traditional techniques. All materials supplied. 12+

Flea Pit Classic

7.30pm Village Hall

Grease and Short Films (T)

Enjoy half an hour of Short Films by local film-makers and then watch the coolest couple in musical movie history - John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John in this 1978 classic.

